

Maya Zupon

Maya Zupon is a climate activist, a radical empath for the earth, and a 3rd grader. Maya's devotion to learning about the planet and our environment informs everything she does at school, home, and in her communities.

Maya is a leader in Open Hearts – her elementary school's Community Service Club as well as the founder and president of The Bee Club which focuses on pollinator education. Maya can usually be found with a book in her hands or digging in the dirt, and enjoys art, cooking, and taekwondo.